In August 1914, Winthrop Bell had just finished defending his doctoral thesis at Göttingen University in Göttingen, Germany when war was declared. Accused of criticizing the Kaiser, Bell was first placed under house arrest at the University, and then transferred to Ruhleben Prison Camp where he spent the remainder of the war. For more information about Dr. Bell see the Mount Allison Archives’ virtual exhibition Winthrop Pickard Bell: Man of the Maritimes, Citizen of the World at: http://www.mta.ca/wpbell/.

MTA Affiliation
University Class of 1904, B.A. with honours in Mathematics; University Class of 1907, M.A.

Date of Birth
12 May 1884

Birthplace
Halifax, NS

Address
Göttingen University, Göttingen, Germany

Trade or Calling
Student

Marital Status
Single

Previous Service
None

Date of Death
4 April 1965

Place of Death
Chester, NS

Where Memorialized
Old Burying Ground, Chester, NS
Sources

Winthrop Pickard Bell: Man of the Maritimes, Citizen of the World,
Mount Allison University Archives, mta.ca/wpbell/.