Libraries and Archives Food and Drink Policy

Ralph Pickard Bell Library and Archives
Food Policy

The consumption of food and beverages is permitted with the following provisions:

1. All food and beverages are kept outside the Archives and Special Collections Reading Rooms in order to protect unique, rare, and special materials.

2. Consideration by all must be given to keeping the building a welcoming, comfortable, and hygienic space.

3. Please clean up after yourself:
   - deposit waste in the appropriate wet/dry waste containers;
   - ask for assistance at Access Services if required.

Policy modified December 2009.
